REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The base claim is claim 1, which can be summarized as follows:

Claim 1 covers a container comprising a base having a bottom wall and a base wall, with the base wall encompassing the bottom and extending upwardly therefrom, the bas comprising a composition of 35 to 65% of a filler including talc and 50 to 75 wt% calcium carbonate and 35 to 65% polyolefin, wherein the container has Gardner Impact Mean Failure Energy of more than about 8 in-lbs., as measured on a 0.020 inch thick sheet in accordance with ASTM D5420-98a. The examiner notes that the ASTM test specified is a standard one whose current parameters are well known.

Art Unit: 1772

5. The closest applicable prior art found can be summarized as follows:

Akao (US 5,225,466) teaches containers made from polypropylene and 0.05 to 40 wt% calcium carbonate, barium sulfate and/or talc. It does not teach that the calcium carbonate filler must be present at levels of 50 to 75 wt% or that its containers have the Gardner impact properties claimed.

JP 61032743A teaches that talc has high aspect ratios and is used with polypropylene to give moldings having good strength and rigidity. It does not teach the use of 50 to 75wt% calcium carbonate or articles having the Gardner impact properties claimed.

Neither reference teaches or suggests containers having all of the features recited in claim 1.

6. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
